RE: In the Matter of Avrohom Becker
Docket No. DRB 12-068

Dear Mr. Neary:

The Disciplinary Review Board recommends to the Court that respondent be reinstated to the practice of law. Respondent's three-month suspension expired on February 9, 2006. The Board's determination is based on a petition for reinstatement filed by respondent.

Enclosed are the following documents:

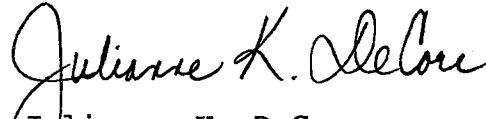

1. Petition for reinstatement, dated February 15, 2012, with attachments, including proof of publication in the New Jersey Law Journal, dated February 6, 2012 (attachment E).*
2. Ethics history, dated March 20, 2012, and Client Protection Fund report, dated February 24, 2012, and updated by email dated March 20, 2012 (attached).
3. Copy of Attorney Registration Form, dated February 9, 2012.

4. Letter from the Office of Attorney Ethics, dated February 29, 2012, offering no objection to respondent's petition.

Very truly yours,

Julianne K. DeCore
Chief Counsel

* R. 1:20-21(e) (Publication of Notice) requires the petitioner to publish a notice of application for reinstatement (1) in the New Jersey Law Journal and (2) in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which respondent last maintained a law office and in the county in which respondent resided at the time of the suspension. In this case, respondent resided and maintained a law office in New York, not in New Jersey. He was reinstated in New York in 2006, where he maintains his law office. According to his petition, he did not practice law in New Jersey. Accordingly, there was no need for him to comply with requirement (2).
