RE: In the Matter of Charles J. Mysak
Docket No. DRB 95-125
LETTER OF ADMONITION

Dear Mr. Mysak:

The Disciplinary Review Board has reviewed your conduct in the above matter and has concluded that it was improper. Specifically, in 1991, during the course of a civil trial in which you represented one of the parties, you exhibited disruptive conduct before the court, ultimately leading to a finding of criminal contempt on your part. Your actions were unethical and in violation of RPC 3.5(c) and 8.4(d), in that you reargued the court rulings in the presence of the court, despite prior warnings from the court; you reargued the court's decision to exclude certain evidence; you raised your voice during the trial in an unseemly manner; and you made a disparaging facial gesture at the court following its ruling.

Your conduct adversely reflected not only upon you as an attorney but also upon all members of the bar. Accordingly, the Board has directed the issuance of this admonition to you. Rule 1:20-4(f)(2).

A permanent record of this occurrence has been filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court and the Board's office. Should you become the subject of any further discipline, it will be taken into consideration.

The Board has also directed that the cost of the disciplinary proceedings be assessed against you. An affidavit of costs will be forwarded under separate cover.

Very truly yours,

Robyn M. Hill
