RE: In the Matter of George Guyer Young III
 Docket No. DRB 95-348
 District Docket No. IV-93-072E
LETTER OF ADMONITION

Dear Mr. Young:

The Disciplinary Review Board has reviewed your conduct in the above matter and has concluded that it was unethical. With the approval of the Supreme Court, the Board has concluded that an admonition is the appropriate discipline for your misconduct.

Specifically, from September 1992 through April 1994, you were the legal representative for the executor of a New Jersey estate as well as for the estate, performing legal services in New Jersey without having a bona fide office in this State. Your conduct was improper and violative of R. 1:21-1(a) and RPC 5.5(a).

In imposing only an admonition, the Board considered that, prior to this estate matter, you had not represented any New Jersey clients.

Your conduct adversely reflected not only upon you as an attorney but also upon all members of the bar. Accordingly, the Board has directed the issuance of this admonition to you.

A permanent record of this occurrence has been filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court and the Board's office. Should you become the subject of any further discipline, it will be taken into consideration.

The Board has also directed that the costs of the disciplinary proceedings be assessed against you. An affidavit of costs will be forwarded under separate cover.

Very truly yours,

Robyn M. Hill
