Re: In the Matter of Christopher J. McCarthy
Docket No. DRB 10-330

Dear Mr. McCarthy:

On March 11, 2011, the Disciplinary Review Board's decision in the above matter was transmitted to the Supreme Court for the Court's review pursuant to R. 1:20-16.

Pursuant to paragraph (b) of that rule, either you or the Office of Attorney Ethics may file with the Court a petition for review. Although attorneys are charged with knowledge of the rules, as a matter of practice the cover letter that transmits a disciplinary file to the Court always incorporates a paragraph citing R. 1:20-16(b). That paragraph was inadvertently omitted from the letter that accompanied your file to the Court and on which you were copied. By way of this letter, we are providing you with the omitted paragraph:

The parties are hereby advised that either respondent or the Office of Attorney Ethics may seek review by filing a notice of petition for review within twenty days of filing of the Board's decision with the Court.

Very truly yours,
