RE: In the Matter of Anthony F. Carracino
Docket No. DRB 95-381
LETTER OF ADMONITION

Dear Mr. Carracino:

The Disciplinary Review Board has reviewed your conduct in the above matter and has concluded that it was improper. Specifically, in or about March 1993, you were retained by Deanna Kociolek to represent her in a personal injury action against the owner of a property located in Pennsylvania. Thereafter, you failed to keep your client informed of the status of the matter, despite approximately twenty telephone calls to you. Nor did you respond to a letter on August 15, 1995, in which your client requested a summary of the progress of the case and a definitive statement from you regarding the representation of her interests. Your conduct was unethical and in violation of RPC 1.4(a).

Your conduct adversely reflected not only upon you as an attorney but also upon all members of the bar. Accordingly, the Board has directed the issuance of this admonition to you. R.1:20-15(f)(4).

A permanent record of this occurrence has been filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court and the Board's office. Should you become the subject of any further discipline, it will be taken into consideration.

I/M/O Anthony F. Carracino
DRB 95-381

The Board has also directed that the costs of the disciplinary proceedings be assessed against you. An affidavit of costs will be forwarded under separate cover.

Very truly yours,

Robyn M. Hill
