Heather J. Bales
CLERK

The Disciplinary Review Board having filed with the Court its decision in DRB 18-282, concluding that William John Bowe, formerly of Red Bank, who was admitted to the bar of this State in 1984, and whose license to practice law in New Jersey was administratively revoked pursuant to Rule 1:28-2(c) on August 25, 2014, should have his pro hac vice privileges suspended for violating RPC 1.15(a) (failure to safeguard funds; commingling personal and client funds), RPC 1.15(d) (recordkeeping violations), RPC 5.5(a) (unauthorized practice of law), and RPC 8.4(b) (commission of a criminal act that reflects adversely on the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as lawyer);

And the Disciplinary Review Board having further concluded that: (1) respondent should not be admitted pro hac vice in any New Jersey matters until further Order of the Court, (2) if and when respondent applies for readmission to the Bar, his readmission should be withheld for a period of one year, and (3) the Office of Attorney Ethics should refer respondent's conduct to the Illinois attorney disciplinary authorities;

And good cause appearing;

It is ORDERED that William John Bowe shall not be admitted pro hac vice in any New Jersey matters until further Order of this Court; and it is further

ORDERED that respondent shall not apply for readmission to the bar of this State for a period of one year; and it is further

ORDERED that the Office of Attorney Ethics shall refer respondent's conduct to the Illinois attorney disciplinary authorities; and it is further

ORDERED that respondent comply with Rule 1:20-20 dealing with suspended attorneys; and it is further

ORDERED that the entire record of this matter be made a permanent part of respondent's file as an attorney at law of this State; and it is further

ORDERED that respondent shall pay to the Disciplinary Oversight Committee the appropriate administrative costs and actual expenses incurred in the prosecution of this matter, as provided in Rule 1:20-17.

WITNESS, the Honorable Stuart Rabner, Chief Justice, at Trenton, this 16th day of July, 2019.
