ORDER

This matter having been duly presented pursuant to Rule 1:20-10(b), following a granting of a motion for discipline by consent in DRB 21-234 of Eric J. Clayman of Cherry Hill, who was admitted to the bar of this State in 1985;

And the District IV Ethics Committee and respondent having signed a stipulation of discipline by consent in which it was agreed that respondent violated RPC 1.4 (b) (failure to keep client reasonably informed), RPC 1.4 (c) (failure to explain a matter to the extent reasonably necessary to permit the client to make informed decisions), and RPC 7.1 (a) (false or misleading communication regarding the lawyer's services);

And the parties having agreed that respondent's conduct agreed to in the stipulation warrants discipline of a reprimand or such lesser discipline as the Disciplinary Review Board deems appropriate;

And the Disciplinary Review Board having determined to dismiss the charge that respondent's conduct violated RPC 7.1 (a), and having determined that a reprimand is the appropriate discipline for respondent's unethical conduct in violation of RPC 1.4 (b) and (c) and having granted the motion for discipline by consent in District Docket No. IV-2019-0010E;

And the Disciplinary Review Board having submitted the record of the proceedings to the Clerk of the Supreme Court for the entry of an Order of discipline in accordance with Rule 1:20-16(e);

And good cause appearing;

It is ORDERED that Eric J. Clayman of Cherry Hill is hereby reprimanded; and it is further

ORDERED that the entire record of this matter be made a permanent part of respondent's file as an attorney at law of this State; and it is further ORDERED that respondent reimburse the Disciplinary Oversight Committee for appropriate administrative costs and actual expenses incurred in the prosecution of this matter, as provided in Rule 1:20-17.
