Re: In the Matter of Savanna Arabi-Katbi
Docket No. DRB 26-186
District Docket No. XIV-2025-0407E
LETTER OF ADMONITION

Dear Ms. Arabi-Katbi:

The Disciplinary Review Board has reviewed your conduct in the above matter and has concluded that it was improper. Following a review of the record, the Board determined to impose an admonition for your violation of RPC 8.1(b) (failing to cooperate with disciplinary authorities) and RPC 8.4(d) (engaging in conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice).

Specifically, you failed to file your required affidavit of compliance, pursuant to R. 1:20-20(b)(15), within the time prescribed by the Court's September 8, 2025 Order of suspension.

In imposing only an admonition, the Board accorded considerable mitigating weight to your decision to not seek reinstatement to the practice of law due to the overwhelming responsibility of caring for your grandmother, your expressed remorse, and your candid admission of your misconduct. In addition, the Board considered that this matter did not proceed as a default, as with most violations of R. 1:20-20. The Board also concluded that, given your temporary suspension from the practice of law, there is limited danger to the public.

Nevertheless, your conduct has adversely reflected not only on you as an attorney but also on all members of the bar. Accordingly, the Board has directed the issuance of this admonition to you. R. 1:20-15(f)(4).

A permanent record of this occurrence has been filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court and the Office of Board Counsel. Should you become the subject of any further discipline, this admonition will be taken into consideration.

The Board also has directed that the costs of the disciplinary proceedings be assessed against you. An invoice of costs will be forwarded to you under separate cover.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Timothy M. Ellis
